DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 20-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Osada (USPN 6,162,236) and further in view of Gardeski et al. (USPN 6,159,198).

3. Osada discloses an expandable cannula body (13) with an interior channel or lumen and a plurality of split splines (23) that can be separated and increase the diameter of the lumen of the cannula body (see figure 7, 8, and entire reference) and a retraction head (50). The puncture tip is being interpreted as the distal end of the cannula body, but fails to disclose the splines being embedded into the cannula body.

4. Gardeski et al. discloses a splittable sheath (10) that shows reinforcing members being embedded into the wall of the sheath (figures 2-4).

5. At the time of the invention it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the device of Osada with the teachings of Gardeski et al. because Gardeski et al. teaches the benefit of having a reinforcing member or splines embedded into the wall of the sheath or cannula since this arrangement will provide a stronger and sturdier catheter. One of ordinary skill would also be able to insert more than two reinforcing members in the cannula, since this would be a mere duplication of parts.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments and amendments filed 10/22/08 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The previous 102 Rejections have been withdrawn.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
